

Vintage High School Choral Music Department

Mark Teeters, Director of Choral Music

Annie

Contract for Participation

This agreement must be returned by Friday, January 15, 2016.

This contract is offered to you for your part(s) in the Vintage High School Concert Choir's production of Annie.

In accepting my part(s), I understand the following:

- That I have committed to all assigned rehearsals and all performances from January 11 through March 13, 2016. A detailed schedule has been given to you.
- Any absence from a rehearsal must be pre-approved by the director and if approved, you must provide a stand-in from the cast or crew to take notes for you.
- Any student may be cut from any scene per the directors discretion.
- That my participation will be a part of my final grade for Third Period Concert Choir and that these performances carry the same weight as a required concert (see Concert Choir Course Description for details).
- That I must maintain at least a 2.0 grade point average for the applicable semester, and that I must stay off the non-privileged list as required by the Academic and Behavior Policy.
- That my on-time attendance and behavior in classroom rehearsals and the rehearsals at the District Auditorium must be exemplary.
- That I must provide my own transportation to the District Auditorium for rehearsals and performances.
- That my role(s) must be accurately memorized when rehearsing at the District Auditorium and not, my participation in Annie is in jeopardy.
- That my acceptance of these conditions and participation in the show have an impact on the entire production.

I accept my role(s) in Annie and understand all of the listed conditions:
